Planning Services
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes	SIP Process Met Expectations?
Comments: No problems
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes	RSP helpful and timely?
Comments: No problems
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes	POC Responsive?
Comments: Karl Newyear did a great job. Just prior to leaving for the cruise, Phil was unable to reach his POC but accepts partial responsibility for this.

Medical Services
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes	Kits received on time?
Comments: All medical forms received on time. Were surprised by addition requests by medical department late in the game. More notice would have been helpful.
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes	Questions answered?
Comments: All questions answered but there was some miscommunication about the resolution of dental x-rays required. At least three participants had the same problem.

Travel Services
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes	TRW available and understandable?
Comments: [Redacted]
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes	Ticketing completed easily?
Comments: All flights were scheduled in a timely fasion. When one flight from Baton Rouge was delayed, all grantees flying to meet the ship in McMurdo for NBP08-02 missed every subsequent flight. Lynn Dormand was very very helpful and made herself available night and day to assist with missed flights and lost luggage.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Meet and assist service met requirements?

Equipment Availability
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes	Requested equipment available?
Comments:
There was some concern early on about having a sufficient number of standard piston core catchers. This turned out not be an issue. Occasionally, scientists had a hard time locating electrical tape.
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No	Damaged?
Comments:
█
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No	Late?
Comments:
█
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes	ECW gear in good condition?
Comments:

<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes	Lab space adequate?
Comments:
Was a little cramped during NBP08-02 with Dave Caron's group on board but Dave was very accomodating.
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes	Remote sensing support needs met? (TeraScan, RadarSat)
Comments:
All ice imagery was very helpful in cruise planning. We used Terascan, ASMR, and National Ice Center images during this trip.

Hotel Services
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes	Cabins clean and neat?
Comments: [REDACTED]
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes	Linens clean and in good condition?
Comments: [REDACTED]
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes	Food quality and variety was good?
Comments: [REDACTED]

Research Objectives
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes	All accomplished? If not, please explain (weather, ice, equipment, personnel, etc.)
Comments: Very happy with the objectives accomplished. "Great data" collected. The only surveys we were not able to complete were due to sea ice.

Future Cruises
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes	If returning for another cruise, are there any additional equipment or support needs your group anticipates?
Comments: Would like more light table space, either a longer table or multiple tables to help with plotting and planning.
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No	Anything you would like to see changed?
Comments: [REDACTED]

Personnel Issues/Concerns
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No	ECO
Comments: Everyone was very friendly and helpful.
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No	RPSC
Comments: Everyone was very friendly and helpful.

Other Issues
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No	Diving, Zodiac, E-mail support, interaction with stations, etc.?
